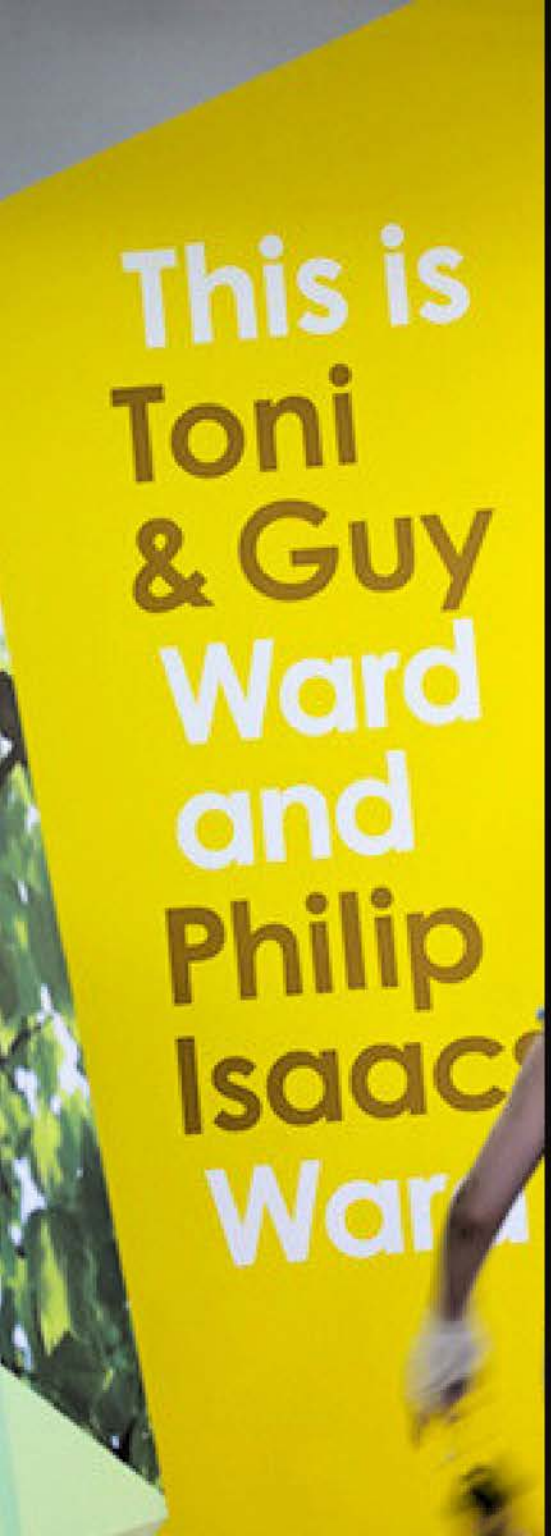
Give the most powerful gift

Discover how with a gift in your Will to Toni&Guy Charitable Foundation

The TONI&GUY Charitable Foundation is the official charity of the internationally renowned hairdressing company, established by Toni and Pauline Mascolo with the aim of helping a variety of worthwhile causes.



We are a small charity so any gift that you choose to leave to us makes a huge difference towards the work we do. Unlike some larger charities, we all work pro-bono and cover operational costs and expenses from our personal funds. Every penny received by the foundation goes directly to our chosen beneficiary apart from the minimal payment transaction fees from online donations, taken by the merchant account providers.

Here at TONI&GUY Charitable Foundation, we believe in the power of community. Every donation is received with incredible appreciation and we love welcoming You into the ever-expanding Toni and Guy family. Through Your generous gift we will be able to continue to support children with critical illness and their families with the challenges they might face for years to come.

Achieving Our Aim

When you leave a gift to charity, it's vital that you choose an organization you trust wholeheartedly. Gifts are crucial to charities, and you want to be sure your donation is making the impact you desire. Excessive operational costs can diminish the power of your donation, so by choosing TONI&GUY Charitable Foundation you can rest assured Your money will be spent wisely.

In the past we have worked with numerous big charities but are now focusing on smaller organisations that need our help the most. The Toni and Guy ward at King's College Hospital is one that will always remain a beneficiary as we have made a commitment to help its upkeep and support the amazing work of the NHS staff who work there, looking after critically ill children and their families.

We choose charities and institutions that are transparent and have a clear objective that correlates with our beliefs. For our current projects and the charities, we support, please see the news section on our website.

What is Legacy Giving

When you donate to us, you can pick which aspect of our work you'd like your gift to go towards. We'll make sure it gets used where you want it to. Your donation can make a real difference, no matter how big or small. These gifts are called 'restrictive gifts'.

We live in unprecedented times; changes are imminent and fast-paced. What applies today might not be the case tomorrow, next year or in 10 years... An 'un-restricted gift' allows us to keep up with the ever-changing environment and meet the needs of our beneficiaries in the most efficient manner possible.

Three Ways of Legacy Giving

When you leave a gift in your will, you not only help out a cause that you're passionate about, but you can also receive tax benefits and reduce the impact and cost of inheritance tax on your beneficiaries. A gift left to a charity is generally inheritance tax exempt and reduces the amount of tax due on your estate. Also, as outlined by Gov.UK, leaving 10% of your estate to a charity may mean a reduction in your inheritance tax bill from 40% to 36% on any amount over the threshold.

Pecuniary Legacies

Leaving a specific sum to a charity.

Residual Legacies

Leaving a percent of your estate to charity.

Gifts

Leaving specific gifts, such as jewellery or shares.
